awarded gold medals at our exhibition are rich & well-known companies. They want distinction & praise rather than any pecuniary help. In my humble opinion pecuniary help when required should be given as money prizes, the medals being always charged for if actually given in metal. This arrangement should be brought into effect from next year. M

Sir,

In reply to your letter No

F.L.5647/G.F.348-10 dated 11th -- instant, I have the honor to state that the question of as to whether we should let Exhibition pay for the medals awarded has been fully discussed in the Committee.

It has been proposed and is already sanctioned by Government to reduce the size of the gold medals so that the extra expenditure that would otherwise be required for a large number will be saved.

To withdraw the free supply of the medals at this - stage will greatly prejudice the Exhibition.

We cannot quite compare our Exhibition with those at Allahabad, Calcutta, etc., where an Exhibitor can advertise his work to a far greater extent and with greater pecuniary - results than at Mysore.

However, the question will again be discussed next year and if possible the suggestion may be carried into effect at a future Exhibition.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

ORDER THEREON.—No.

The parties who exhibit articles at public Exhibitions and fairs may be divided into two classes viz, (1) rich and well known firms who want distinction and praise rather than any pecuniary help, and

SUBJECT.

(2) indigenous workers of modest means to whom even a small money prize would be useful. In the opinion of Government it will be sufficient to grant to exhibitors of the first class a certificate ^{or} of paper stating that their exhibits have been adjudged a gold or silver medal ^{or a certificate for the kind of production} or a certificate. For the second class of exhibitors the award should take the form of a money prize. It will be open to an exhibitor of the first class to obtain from the Exhibition Committee a medal in gold or silver as the case may be in payment of the cost price of ^{such} a medal. This arrangement should be brought into effect from the next year (1912-13).

And as far as possible from the approaching exhibition of 1911 -
